

Table Manners

DLM

Everyone needs to eat.

It is important for people to use good manners when they eat.

People should use silverware when they eat.

A knife is sharp and should be used for cutting food.

A fork is pointy and should be used for picking up food.

A spoon is round and should be used for scooping up food.

People should sit down when they eat.

People should not talk with food in their mouths.

It is important for people to use good manners when they eat.